

Shayla Gallagher

Mrs. Cindy Zain, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Shayla Gallagher as Outstanding Information Technology student of the Third Quarter for the 2013-2014 school year.

Shayla is an exceptional young lady and very deserving of this award. Shayla qualified to attend the State Business Professionals of America (BPA) Leadership Conference in two competitions. As a member of the Global Marketing Team, she placed second and qualified to attend the National Leadership Conference which will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Shayla is involved in many extracurricular activities and puts in countless hours in school, sports, and volunteer activities. She is President of Working on Wellness (WOW) and devotes many hours of her own time volunteering to help others in need in the community. She is very involved in "Kids on the Block", a group that presents skits to elementary students showing how to handle difficult situations. Shayla is very considerate of others and can always be counted on to help out whenever she is asked to do something.

In recognition of these accomplishments Shayla will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Shayla
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Information Technology!

Sara Watson

Mrs. Diane Harrington,
Business, Management,
Marketing & Technology
teacher, has selected
Sara Watson
as Outstanding
Administrative Services
student of the Third Quarter for the 2013-2014 school year.

Sara has been an amazing asset to my classes throughout her high school career. In four years she has missed only one day of school! Her exceptional work ethic is evident every day. She is a first year member of Business Professionals of America (BPA) placing at regionals in Integrated Office Applications and representing our chapter at states where she placed eleventh out of forty.

In recognition of these accomplishments Sara will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Sara
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Administrative Services!

Carissa Bell

Mrs. Heather Suggitt, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Carissa Bell as Outstanding Accounting/Financial Marketing student of the Third Quarter of the 2013-2014 school year.

Carissa is a junior in her first year of the BMMT programs. She is enrolled in one hour of Accounting and two hours of Administrative Services. Carissa has been excelling since the beginning of the year, and hasn't slowed down a bit! She has picked up the accounting concepts easily and has transferred her knowledge to her Business Professionals of America (BPA) contest, Entrepreneurship.

Carissa has spent countless hours creating her business plan, including the products and services offered, marketing analysis, and financial analysis. Her hours of research and preparation paid off as she placed first in the state of Michigan for this contest, edging out approximately 25 other contestants. In addition, she placed second in the state in Fundamental Word Processing Skills.

Carissa's drive and determination combined with her attention to detail and strong work ethic will surely propel her to the front of the pack at the BPA National Leadership Conference in May.

Carissa is an all-around great student and a pleasure to have in class!

In recognition of these accomplishments Carissa will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Carissa
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Accounting/Financial Marketing!

Hunter Killips

Mrs. Anita Benson, Drafting & Design Technology teacher, has selected Hunter Killips as the Outstanding Drafting & Design Technology student of the Third Quarter for the 2013-2014 school year.

Hunter is a junior this year and is currently taking the two hour block of drafting.

Hunter has been working very hard in the Moodle program with many of his designs going above and beyond the required parameter. He is very focused and is currently designing a full house that includes furnishings. He has added many extras such as ceiling fans, carpets and a variety of furniture to compliment his house. He will be incorporating landscaping which includes a playground that he has developed earlier in the year.

Hunter is a quiet student and has also been teaching himself the Envisioneer program to compliment his other work. He has assisted other students at times and shows a real flair for architectural designing. Hunter has an excellent eye for both exterior and interior design and should do well in any field that includes drafting.

In recognition of these accomplishments Hunter will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Hunter
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Drafting & Design Technology!

Hayley Morley

Mrs. Jo Anne Lussier,
Work-based Learning
Coordinator, has selected
Hayley Morley
as Outstanding Work-based Learning student of the Third Quarter for the
2013-2014 school year.

Hayley is currently placed in our teacher cadet program at Soo Township Elementary School working with Mrs. Gina Jacques in her junior kindergarten classroom. Hayley spends two hours of her day at the elementary school helping with a variety of tasks and keeping very busy with the little ones!

Hayley joined the program this year and has grown a great deal during her year working in a junior kindergarten classroom. Hayley has had the opportunity to participate in a variety of activities and learning opportunities. She has participated in field trips to pumpkin patches, dance shows, decorating cookies, creating bulletin boards, visits to Santa and helped the students with amazing and fun lessons.

She is hardworking and very conscientious about her work. She pays great attention to detail and does all this with a smile on her face. She has proven that she has the skills it takes to be a teacher at the elementary level, should she continue pursuing this career field. Hayley's supervisor recently shared that, "Hayley continues to do an excellent job in the classroom. She is helpful, organized and works well with the children". According to Hayley, "I have so much fun with my students and they never fail to put a smile on my face every day that I am there".

Hayley is also a busy athlete at Sault Area High School. She participates in Varsity volleyball and basketball. We have no doubt that Hayley will continue to excel in all areas that she chooses to take on. She is an excellent role model for her young students. We are proud to have her as an "Outstanding CTE Student"! Congratulations Hayley.

In recognition of these accomplishments Hayley will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Hayley
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in
Work-based Learning!

Ashley Harwood

Mrs. Elena Lehocky, Health Sciences
Teacher, has selected
Ashley Harwood
as the Outstanding Health Sciences student of the Third Quarter for the
2013-2014 school year.

Ashley is a second year student in the program and an active member of Health Occupation Students of America (HOSA). She is dependable, motivated to learn new things, and willing to go above and beyond basic class requirements. She plans on a career in Veterinary Medicine. Ashley's excellent communication and dependability are appreciated. When she is going to be absent from class, she gives advance notification to me and her site. In addition to this, she makes up her hours promptly even when she is not required to do so for excused absences. Recently, Ashley took a vacation while school was in session. In order to receive full credit for her clinical site experience, she planned ahead of time to make up her hours before taking her trip. If Ashley makes a commitment, she follows through. She treats her clinical site as actual employment and strives for excellence. These qualities would be appreciated by any employer. Ashley places a high value on her education and sharing new things with others.

In addition to increasing her own knowledge, she works on helping others to have access to what she has learned. Ashley has been an active member of HOSA and a competitor for two years. Last year, she competed in Veterinary Science and this year, she is on the Public Service Announcement Team. She is the secretary for HOSA during second and third hour where she has been working on writing sponsorship letters. Despite her clear plans for a veterinary career, she completed the Nurse Aide Training Program last year so that she would gain a better understanding of people and how to care for them. On her clinical site, her evaluations are always rated as A+ and the staff always comments on how self-motivated she is. With permission, she has shared her clinical experience with the class for educational purposes on numerous occasions which is appreciated by the students. If students are needed to help advertise our program, Ashley is always willing to lend a helping hand with Career Center tours for prospective students and the general public. She routinely goes above and beyond what is required, including assisting students with HOSA projects. I have no doubt that Ashley will be successful in her Veterinary career and any employer would be lucky to have her as an employee.

In recognition of these accomplishments Ashley will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Ashley
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Health Sciences!

Kyle Blalock

Mr. Gary Herschell,
Construction Technology
teacher, has selected
Kyle Blalock
as the Outstanding
Construction Technology
student of the Third Quarter
for the 2013-2014
school year.

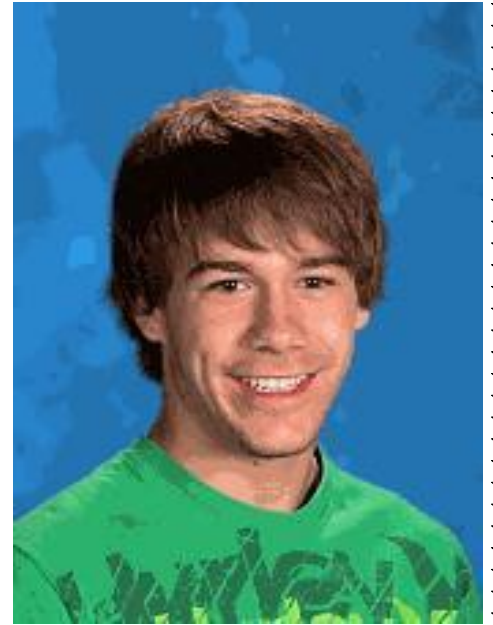

Kyle Blalock a senior in the Construction Trades program has earned outstanding student of the quarter. This is Kyle's first year in the program and with each passing day Kyle's enthusiasm and work ethic for the trade grows. Kyle has become a leader on a class project and has continually taken on projects and tasks despite the complexity or worth. Kyle's willingness to stay on task and eye for detail is contagious to the rest of the class. Kyle will have a good base of skills and knowledge from what he has accomplished when he graduates in May.

In recognition of these accomplishments Kyle will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Kyle
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Construction Technology

Steven Thoresen

Mr. Greg Rambo,
Welding/Brazing Technology
teacher, has selected
Steven Thoresen
as the Outstanding
Welding/Brazing Technology
student of the Third Quarter
for the 2013-2014
school year.

Steve is a second year student who is a leader in class and leads by example. He is always the first one to work and will always help with projects and other tasks that he is assigned. Steve competed in Skills USA in the all-around competition at regionals at Bay College in March 2014. Steve is carrying a 3.3 grade point average and also has excellent attendance while competing in Varsity Football and Baseball during his senior year.

In recognition of these accomplishments Steve will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Steve
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Welding/Brazing Technology!

Adam Voigt

Mr. Tim Strader, Automotive Technology teacher, has selected Adam Voigt as the Outstanding Automotive Technology student of the Third Quarter for the 2013-2014 school year.

Adam is a worker, plain and simple. He is always cheerful and looking for a job to do. He is willing to learn new things and not afraid to try things he has never done before. His silly Jeep has been keeping him busy but it is coming along slowly and it keeps giving him new things to learn as it breaks apart. LOL!

In recognition of these accomplishments Adam will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Adam
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Automotive Technology!

Jeffrey Monck

Mr. Gary Herschell, Machine Tool Technology teacher, has selected Jeffrey Monck as the Outstanding Machine Tool student of the Third Quarter for the 2013-2014 school year.

Jeff Monck, a senior in the Machine Tool Technology program, has earned outstanding student of the quarter. Jeff has worked hard in the Machine Tool Program for the past two years which has been evident by the skills and success that he has achieved. Jeff has been a reliable machinist who willingly takes on many extra projects outside of class expectations. Jeff has been a great mentor to many new students in the program and has served as a great asset to the Machine Tool Program. With the skills and knowledge Jeff has attained, he can become very successful in the Machining Trade.

In recognition of these accomplishments Jeff will receive a $25 gift card from our sponsor National Office Products and Printing, Inc.

Congratulations Jeff
On being the Outstanding Student of the Quarter in Machine Tool Technology!
