

Nicole Dumback

Mrs. Jo Anne Lussier, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Nicole Dumback as Outstanding Marketing student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

As a second year Marketing Student, Nikki has grown a great deal in her self-confidence and leadership skills. She continues to lead with a quiet presence, but is highly respected by her peers in the program.

Her talents as an artist have only enhanced her abilities in Marketing. She has a natural gift to see an idea or vision through to completion and success. She has many of the attributes that one would see in an entrepreneur. She is hardworking, dedicated and driven. She works well independently, but has the ability to get along with anyone!

Nikki is always willing to take on tasks, even if they are out of her comfort zone. She is learning to trust her abilities more and more each day. She portrays the characteristics and ethics of an individual beyond her years. I am proud of the young lady she is and am honored to have her as our Outstanding Marketing Student this quarter.

Congratulations Nikki on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Brielle Smith

Mrs. Diane Harrington, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Brielle Smith as Outstanding Administrative Services student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Brielle Smith has gone above and beyond expectations during this 2nd nine weeks in and out of the classroom. She was a Business Professionals of America (BPA) regional winner Prepared Speech (2nd place) and Advanced Word Processing (1st place). She was also a Diplomat Torch Award winner along with serving as our chapter's Co-President. Brielle is a three-year BPA member and has been a regional winner each year. She is a student that I can continually count on when others in the class need help. She easily can fulfill this role along with completing her own work proficiently. Her skills in the business area are second to none.

Congratulations Brielle on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Kayla McRorie

Mrs. Heather Suggitt, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Kayla McRorie as Outstanding Accounting/Finance student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Kayla is a senior in her 2nd year of Accounting. Last year, Kayla was enrolled for one hour and completed the Accounting I curriculum. This year, Kayla is enrolled in a two hour block. She began the year by tackling some of the most difficult job titles in the accounting area. Kayla's focus and determination are what have propelled her ahead in class and her extra-curricular activities. She is a hard worker and has excellent time management skills.

Kayla is always open for a new challenge. She has not slowed her pace since the beginning of the year. In addition to the job titles she is working on, she is always willing to assist the teacher with anything needed.

Congratulations Kayla on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Allison McKechnie

Mrs. Cindy Zain, Business, Management, Marketing & Technology teacher, has selected Allison as Outstanding Information Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Allison has been in Information Technology for the past two years and does an outstanding job. Alley is always one of the first to volunteer to help out whenever I need something done.

She is a very determined and forward-looking student who always looks for ways to streamline tasks by using technology. She was the first student last year who finished an online program called ieclass which is a website design program.

Alley has been a member of Business Professionals of America (BPA) for two years, and last year she qualified to attend the state conference in Fundamentals of Web Design as well as having received a Statesman Torch Award (for service to school and community). She was also one of only four Sault High students who received an Ambassador Torch Award and was recognized at the National BPA Conference in Washington, D.C. This year, she qualified for the state conference in both Fundamentals of Web Design and Web Site Design Team. Alley is also one of our co-presidents of BPA this year.

Alley has a very rigorous schedule which includes two Advanced Placement (AP) classes, but she still finds the time to be involved in nine different school groups and organizations. She is just a terrific student and person who truly deserves to be recognized as the Outstanding Student of the Quarter.

Congratulations Allison on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Trask Reinhart

Mrs. Elena Rasaiah-Lehocky, Allied Health Technology teacher, has selected Trask Reinhart as Outstanding Allied Health student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

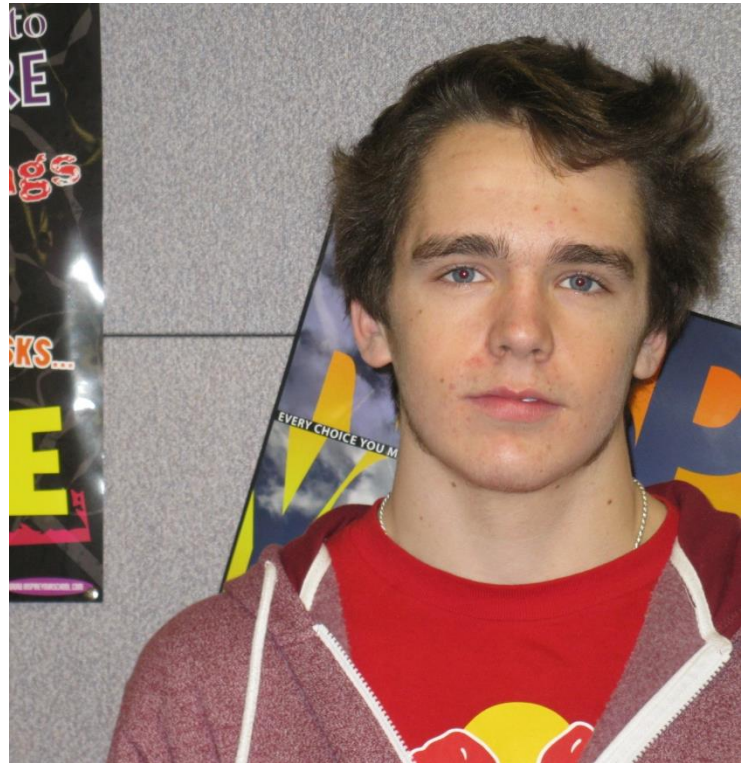

Trask is a hard working first year Allied Health student on his way to becoming a Veterinarian. He has excellent attendance, completes his work on time, and treats his classmates and staff with respect. In addition to required class work, he is always offering to help students and staff with anything that needs to be done. His passion for health education is evident and appreciated as he is more than willing to make online quizzes to help with labs. This year, Trask is creating our online medical terminology cards, using the HTML he learned in Business, Management, Marketing Technology. He has also created teacher led notes for one of our basic patient care chapters.

Trask plans on attending Sault Animal Hospital and Animal Kingdom next semester for site assignments. He is also preparing for his Veterinary Science competition for regional Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) this February 2012. His contribution and participation in class is outstanding. His easy going personality and sense of humor makes him a pleasure to have in the classroom.

Congratulations Trask on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Denver Pierce

Mr. Randy Gebolys, Construction Technology teacher, has selected Denver Pierce as Outstanding Construction Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Denver is always eager to work and is a positive influence on others in the class. He is willing to take initiative with a project and not afraid to try new things. He is a major contributor to any project and finishes what he starts. Denver's positive attitude is contagious and others follow his lead. He is a great role model to his peers. Denver is a junior and I am happy to nominate him for this award.

Congratulations Denver on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Shellby Goeschel

Mr. Abe Zain, Drafting/Design Technology teacher, has selected Shellby Goeschel as Outstanding Drafting/Design Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Shellby is a first semester junior who came into drafting with very little technical skills. She was very quiet and had little self-confidence. In the last eighteen weeks with hard work and determination she has developed into one of the best drafting students whom I have ever had the pleasure to work with at the Career Center. With the ability to multitask and she is currently learning three software packages at one time. She has worked hard in developing a working relationship with Mr. Waybrant, Rambo and Strader programing all the plasma cam problems this semester. Shellby learns by example and has become one of the best programmers we have had in the past. Once she sees an application in use, she does not forget the process. She has also become confident working with others students in welding and machine shop and realizes how important she is to our manufacturing department. Shellby is also a great ambassador for drafting due to her visibility in all the other shops throughout the day. Shellby is a outstanding young lady to have in class and I look forward to working with her in the upcoming years.

Congratulations Shellby on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Ashlyn Malmborg

Mr. Gary Herschell, Machine Tool Technology teacher, has selected Ashlyn Malmborg as Outstanding Machine Tool Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Ashlyn Malmborg, a first year junior in machine tool technology. Ashlyn has picked up the trade of machining very fast over the past eighteen weeks. She has the determination, patience and ability to accomplish any task asked of her. Ashlyn excels when working on the lathe and I believe that in our upcoming Skills Competition in Escanaba, MI she is going to be a well-equipped competitor.

Congratulations Ashlyn on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Trey Benoit

Mr. Greg Rambo, Welding Technology teacher, has selected Trey Benoit as Outstanding Welding Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Trey Benoit, a senior at Sault Area High School, has been an excellent student in the classroom and in the shop. He has continuously been a front-runner by leading projects in the shop and still able to keep up on his required work. His attendance and effort is excellent. He is persistently becoming more proficient in welding procedures.

Congratulations Trey on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Tyler Wall

Mr. Abe Zain, Work-Based Learning teacher, has selected Tyler Wall as Outstanding Work-Based student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

Tyler is enrolled in the Teacher Cadet under the direction of Mrs. Harrington, Administrative Services in Business, Management, Marketing and Technology Cluster. Tyler is always professional when dealing with other teachers and office staff during his teacher cadet activities. His student portfolio is outstanding when compared to others and his inquires and questions dealing with cadet assignments shows he is being pro-active. Mrs. Harrington states the following:” Tyler is an amazing Teacher Cadet. He is very organized, self-motivated and follows directions. He is proficient in Moodle as he has created and modified assignments. Tyler works with students one on one and is excellent at explaining instructions and assignments. He was a regional 3rd place Business Professionals of America (BPA) winner in Database Applications.” Tyler is an outstanding addition to our Teacher Cadet program and is well deserving of the distinction of Outstanding Student of the Quarter.

Congratulations Tyler on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter

Dolan Skow

Mr. Tim Strader, Automotive Technology teacher, has selected Dolan Skow as Outstanding Automotive Technology student of the 2nd quarter for the 2011-2012 school year.

(Dolan is in a 2012 Ford Raptor at the Ford Rouge Assembly plant on the Automotive Technology Field Trip, January 18, 2012.)

Dolan has been a force this marking period; he is the first to volunteer for any job to be done. I can hardly get, "I need someone to..." and he is up and ready to do it! He is leading his classmates and pushing them to do their best. Dolan's work ethic has simply gone through the roof. Hard work and determination are words that fit him well

Congratulations Dolan on being
Outstanding Student of the Quarter
